dollars; that on the debt there will be a loss of $25,000, and that in his opinion the bank will wind up minus $.00,000. The opinion of the examiltee was that the bills would never be worth more than 40 to 50 cents on the dollar. The President, Cashier and Directors owed its bank at the time of its stoppage $85,700. The committee agreed to a resolution that the practice of its officers in taking large sums of money from the Bank for private purposes, and the loose manner in which its affairs were managed, were the causes of its suspension. The Troy Whig says the produce market is very dull, and little is brought in.
